

MAKES HER PEACE
WITH AN ELEPHANT

Miss Esther Lyon on Imogen's Exclusive List of Friends.

"Madam, I wish to congratulate you on making friends with such a distinguished and amiable member of your own sex."

This is the first compliment "The Circus Man," in the play of that name, has ever paid to a woman, and it is addressed to Miss Esther Lyon, played by Esther Lyon, because she has made friends with Imogen, who, in real life, is a plain Asiatic elephant, weighing 4,015 pounds "on the hoof."

The situation from Maclyn Arbuckle's new play, which is coming to the Columbia next week, was duplicated in earnest before Miss Esther Lyon was engaged for the role of the widow. Contrary to all precedents, the leading lady had to make her peace with the soubrette.

Imogen has become remarkably docile since she began her season's tour with "The Circus Man." But she refuses to make friends with anyone save her trainer, Maclyn Arbuckle, and Miss Lyon. To them she shows her affection by embraces. She winds her long trunk around any or all of them whenever they are in range, and about the only way to be freed is to feed her a lump of sugar. She received a group of Washington newspaper men at the Academy of Music in Baltimore this week, and, since none of them were in the habit of carrying sugar in their pockets, the trainer was called out to save them.

Imogen has been known to receive ladies and children after her matinees, and it is probable that she may do so here—if the ladies and children are not afraid.

Owing to the wide attention Imogen has received, Mr. Arbuckle wishes it announced that he is also in the performance at times.

LEAVES COAT BEHIND

Policeman Frightens Off Two Men in Act of Entering House.

The gentleman who left his overcoat lying on the ground when rudely interrupted by the police this morning in his task of attempting to force an entrance to the Morris mansion, 1214 Massachusetts avenue, can obtain the same by applying to the Second precinct police station and no questions will be asked.

The policeman on the beat saw it all and he needs no further evidence. The two men were observed making all the necessary preparations for entering the Morris house just before dawn. He saw them approach one of the windows and try it. One of the men took off his overcoat and threw it on the ground. Before he could force an entrance, however, the policeman interfered and both men ran, leaving the overcoat behind. There was nothing about the coat to identify the men.

GOVERNOR LITTLE RETURNS TO HOME

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 12.—Gov. John Little, who was taken from his office three hours after his inauguration three years ago, will return to Little Rock tomorrow, accompanied by his son and physician, and be placed in the State Hospital for the insane. He has been in a sanitarium at St. Joseph since 1908.

Advices from the Missouri institution say the governor is rapidly improving, and that his removal to an institution where he can meet and be administered to by friends will have a tendency to hasten his recovery.

GIN FOR THE KIDNEYS

Gin is one of the best known remedies for kidney and bladder troubles, especially when used in the following formula: Six ounces good pure gin, one half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one-half ounce Muxax compound, all of which can be had of any good druggist. Take in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal. Pain in the back, frequent or bloody colored urination, soreness in the region of groin or bladder, rheumatic pains in joints or muscles indicate disordered kidneys and need attention promptly to prevent possible trouble of serious nature.

It may be that you think you have catarrh so badly that it cannot be cured; that it is your misfortune to be handicapped in life by the disgusting symptoms of catarrh. When druggists have a remedy called Hyomei that relieves acute catarrh in two minutes simply by breathing it in, and cures chronic catarrh in a few weeks, by the same simple method, aren't you going to pay a little attention? And when Henry Evans states most emphatically that he will guarantee Hyomei to cure catarrh or give you your money back, what is your answer?

Are you satisfied with your condition, or do you want to rid yourself forever of vile catarrh, with its humiliating symptoms, such as hawking, spitting, blowing and bad breath? It is made of Australian eucalyptus mixed with other germ killing and membrane soothing antiseptics. Get a complete outfit today.
